

Empowering women in agriculture.

ANNIE'S PROJECT COURSES

Compeer Financial and UW-Extension are committed to supporting women in agriculture. Our partnership with Annie's Project brings these women together to gain valuable insights into important matters affecting their farm or agribusiness, all while building a network of supportive peers facing similar opportunities and challenges. We cover five specific risk management topics and facilitate discussions relevant to their farm business and community.

COURSE TOPICS

- Financial risk
- Human resource risk
- Legal risk
- Market risk
- Production risk
- Community building

COURSE FEE

$50 for Compeer Financial clients
$75 for non-Compeer Financial clients

TO REGISTER

Visit compeer.com/annies-project or call (844) 426-6733.
*Register early; space is limited.

Launched in 2002, Annie's Project—Education for Farm Women is dedicated to strengthening women's roles in modern farm enterprises and empowering women to be better business partners. To learn more, visit anniesproject.org.

2019 Annie's Project Course

Each course will be held one day per week for six weeks. Registrants should plan to attend all six sessions.

MENOMONIE, Wis.

Tuesdays, 9:30 a.m.–2:30 p.m.
November 5, 12, 19, 26; December 3, 10
(Snow date is December 17)

Dunn Co. Community Services Building
3001 US Highway 12 E
Menomonie, WI 54741

This Annie's Project course is being offered in collaboration with UW-Extension.

Extension
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

"Excellent course. I am learning so much, I am meeting great farmers, and it's moving me to start my food-growing business. Thank you!"

