

CULTIVATING YOUR FARM'S FUTURE

FARM SUCCESSION AND ESTATE PLANNING WORKSHOPS »

Having intentional conversations around farm succession and developing future plans for the farm provides a better chance of transition success.

AGENDA »

10 a.m.

Communicating your goals and needs for your farm transition
Carl Duley, Extension Buffalo County Agriculture Agent

11 a.m.

How big is your barn? How big does it need to be for your farm transition?
Katie Wantoch, Extension Dunn County Agriculture Agent

12 p.m. Lunch

12:30 p.m.

Will a trust or an LLC help you in your farm transition?
Bridget Finke, Attorney, Valley Crossing Law Office

2:30 p.m. Evaluations/Adjourn

For additional information or to register, please contact:
Katie Wantoch, Extension Dunn County agriculture
educator at 715-232-1636 or katie.wantoch@wisc.edu.
Online registration available at
<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/95424580489>

NEXT WORKSHOP

March 18, 2020
10 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

Dunn County Community
Services Building
3001 US Hwy 12 East
Menomonie, WI 54751

Cost: $20 per person

Registration includes refreshments, speakers and workshop materials.

Lunch provided by:

BREMER