2020 Dunn County Fair Exhibitor Guidelines

The Dunn County Fair Board is working diligently putting in place procedures for exhibiting at the modified version of the 2020 Dunn County Fair. This is the current schedule for judging and showing; keep in mind that the schedule may change as we get closer to the fair and recommendations change from the Dunn County Public Health Department. Watch the website and Facebook posts for any updates or changes to the schedule. Please direct all questions to the Dunn County Fair Board.

Animal Exhibits

- General Requirements
 - Exhibitors must adhere to all rules as found in the Dunn County Fair Book
 - Exhibitors must adhere to all animal health rules as required by DATCP
 - Exhibitors involved in the Meat Animal Project (MAP) must comply with any additional rules and regulations from MAP
 - No group classes will be held (i.e. club herd, pen of animals, etc.)
 - No Little Britches Show
 - Exhibitors must enter via FairEntry, which opened on June 15 and will close on June 29, no paper entries will be accepted
 - No entry tags will be printed for animal projects
 - Face coverings are required
 - The fair is not open to the public, only immediate family members living in the same household are allowed on the grounds or in the buildings
 - No potluck type meals are allowed; as there will not be a food stand on the grounds, bring lunch with you
- Show day for animal exhibits
 - Exhibitors will arrive on show day and will need to have their paperwork ready before unloading animals
 - All exhibitors and their immediate family must sign in, provide contact information, and receive a wristband before unloading animals
 - Dairy, beef swine, sheep, llamas, goats, poultry, rabbits, cats, cavies, and small pets
 - Entry and judging schedule for individual species (times will be determined once FairEntry closes and entries can be reviewed by staff)
 - Tuesday – poultry
 - Wednesday – rabbits
 - Thursday – dairy, llamas, cavies, small pets, cats
 - Friday – beef, goats, sheep
 - Saturday – swine
 - Animals will arrive for judging and will be tied to trailers, in temporary pens or in cages provided by exhibitors
 - Complete a full wash of your animals before arriving on the grounds due to the limited space on the wash rack

- You will be able to wash off your animal if it got dirty on the trailer, this should be a quick wash only
 - The coverall, swine and dairy/beef barn will be utilized as needed
 - Weather permitting, outside show ring under the Oaks will be used for larger species; small animal barn will be used for poultry, rabbits, cavies, small pets, and cats
 - Once unloading, stay with your trailer or pen and social distance from other exhibitors and families
 - After judging, please load all bedding, feed, and garbage back on your trailer and take with you; please leave the grounds as soon as you are done showing and have cleaned up your area
 - Swine show is terminal; all animals on the grounds must go to slaughter
 - Dog Show
 - If permitted, dog training will begin on July 13 and run for 10 weeks, dog show scheduled for September 26
 - Exhibitors are encouraged to enter exhibits under Department 10, Animal and Veterinary Science in case the dog show is cancelled later
 - Horse Show
 - All horse events for the 2020 fair are cancelled
 - Exhibitors are encouraged to enter exhibits under Department 10, Animal and Veterinary Science
- MAP Auction
 - In person/live auction is cancelled along with the weigh-in
 - Information on marketing and selling animals privately is available for project members; you may keep the meat for your own family
 - MAP and the fair board are working with the processors for delivery of the animals
 - Animals will go directly to processors from the fair
