Note from our President:

I hope you all had a wonderful holiday spent with family and friends. My brother Larry and his wife live on the farm where we grew up, and Christmas Eve is celebrated there each year. It brings back many pleasant memories of my childhood Christmases.

The year 2025 saw several firsts for Dunn County HCE. We held our first Ludington Guard Band pie sale, raising over $1,400 for our Bookworms program. We also received a countywide education award at the State WAHCE Convention. Individual clubs have won awards in the past, but I believe this was our first countywide recognition.

In addition, we held our first Cultural Arts Show and Tell. This was also the first year we did not hold R.E.A.L. Saturday (Relax, Enjoy and Learn) since it was introduced many years ago. However, our October All-Member Meeting showed there is strong interest in bringing back some type of craft-focused program. One idea is to offer a special program in October or November where members can demonstrate how to make Halloween, Thanksgiving, or Christmas party favors. Other types of crafts could also be included. There is also the Sew Blessed program, which is open to anyone interested in working on projects to help bless our community. More about this program can be found on page 6 of this newsletter.

Hope your holiday season was filled JOY!

I took the 45 book sets sent to us by Scholastic to our November Board meeting, my Elk Meadow Christmas Party, and the Dunn County Christmas Tea. We have sold 27 book sets at $10 each. (There are 10 different books packaged together.) We still have 18 sets available. They would make excellent gifts for young readers. So, if you are in the market or have any questions about these books, call 715-879-5015 and let me know. Since these book sets were gifted to me by Scholastic, all the money received will go into the Bookworms project.

Also, a reminder to sort through your book stash and save any good book finds for our upcoming Dunn County Fair Used Book Sale. A good project for a cold winter day! You may even find one or two you would like to read again.

Stay warm this winter. Grab a warm beverage, a comfy quilt, and a good book! ENJOY!

She joined her husband and dance partner who passed in January, 2025. They had been married for 69 years.

Lori was an active member for 47 years, joining in 1978. She will be remembered for her sense of humor, her enthusiasm, and her spunk! She was a reader for the HCE Bookworms Program. Also active in her church, she spent MANY hours setting up and running the Elk Mound Food Pantry located in the Shepherd of the Hill Lutheran Church in Elk Mound. She served on the election board for her township for many years as well. Her favorite activities included: spending time with her grandchildren and great grandchildren watching them in sports, baking, playing cards, a self-taught pianist who loved to sing and dance. We will miss Lori and her positive attitude at every meeting. Just before her death, one of our members called to ask if she would be attending our Christmas Party the first week in December. She answered that she would not miss it. She wasn't able to keep that promise, as she entered heaven just days before that December 3 Christmas Party. Rest in peace, dear Lori, or maybe I should say dance, sing, and be social!

IN MEMORIAM

Lorene (Lori) Jenson passed away at 90 on November 29, 2025.

Nov. 13 1:00 pm Menomonie Public Library Tour.

Eight members attended the presentation and went on the tour presented by Director Joleen Stark.

Library services in Menomonie began around 1850s – 1870s as a community project started by a local women's group who wanted to provide a constructive, educational place for people — especially as an alternative to socializing in the saloons of the day. The first library collection was housed on the second floor of the First National Bank building. In 1891 the Mabel Tainter Memorial Library was established and in 1986 the present public library was opened. Today, the Menomonie Public Library offers a wide range of services. In addition to books, community members have access to movies, music, audiobooks, magazines, and digital materials, including e-books and online resources that can be used from home. The library provides public computers, Wi-Fi, printing, copying, and scanning, along with staff assistance for basic technology questions. Meeting and study spaces are available for individuals and community groups.

CLUB NOTES

Baxterville-We cleaned the town hall in October. This is a fundraiser for our club. In November we painted wooden spoons to look like snowmen. We each painted one for ourselves plus painted a few extras for our Holiday Tea centerpiece. We held the club Christmas party at the home of Robin Wirth. This included a secret Santa / Secret Pal gift exchange. During the year, members sent cards and/or sneak in gifts for their secret pal. When members receive them, they often email the entire club a thank you to whoever was responsible.

Cedarlings-Oct– Educational Reports-Health: Mary Baier reminded members that young children should be vaccinated for measles due to recent outbreaks. Cultural Arts: Margaret Breisch read her story, "Conner Saves the Day," which was entered in the WAHCE State Conference Cultural Arts competition and received a blue ribbon.

Read to Me Program: Mary Baier is in the process of applying for a Rotary grant to expand the program from a half-year to a full-year program. New Business: Holiday Tea assignments were reviewed. In addition to cookies, we will provide two silent auction items and one raffle prize.

Cedarlings-Nov.: A motion was made and approved to donate $25 to Bookworms in memory of Al Fremouw. Melanie shared information about a monthly program at the public library called "Community Conversations." The November topic will focus on free speech. Melanie also recommended watching the PBS special by Ken Burns about the Revolutionary War. We discussed opening a club bank account. A checking account was not previously needed when our income and expenses consisted mainly of collecting and paying member dues. However, we are now receiving grants and donations for our Read to Me program. Mary Baier and Vicki Maves were authorized to explore options at the Credit Union and Old National Bank and to open a checking account at one of them. The December club Christmas party was discussed. It will be held at Mary Baier's home. Members signed up for menu items to bring for the potluck.

Cedarlings-Dec.: We held our Christmas party and began with a potluck meal. This was followed by a Christmas sing-along accompanied by Vicki Maves on flute and Larry Jess and Margaret Breisch on clarinet. The event also included a gift exchange, Christmas trivia, Christmas jokes, and lots of "fabulous" prizes.

Elk Meadow- In October, our club collected winter clothing to be donated to the Mounder Closet at the elementary school and in November, members brought items for the local food pantry. Club officers for 2026 were elected with Helen B as the club president and the remaining positions unchanged. Our club has also voted to change the 2026 meeting time to 12 noon starting in January. The Elk Meadow HCE Christmas party was held at Independence Bank meeting room on Dec. 3rd. We enjoyed a delicious meal provided by Cyndi S and assistants followed by some excellent seasonal songs performed by the afterschool choir from Mound View Elementary and wrapped up the afternoon with a gift exchange.

Elk Meadow HCE was saddened by the recent passing of long-time member Lori Jenson. She had been an active member for 47 years and will be very missed.

Popple Creek-Oct.: Plans for our club for the Holiday Tea were discussed. We will provide a basket for the raffle, featuring items for relaxation; throw, slippers, books, mugs, hot chocolate, tea etc. We will also provide a center piece with a Cookie Theme and silent auctions items. Dues were collected. We had a discussion on "How to Keep a Septic System Healthy". We will suggest this topic for a Special Interest Session next year, at the "All Member Meeting" to be held this month.

Items for Colfax Wildlife Rehab and Release and Colfax Sr. Living Center were collected.

Popple Creek-Nov.: Final plans for the Holiday were discussed. The Raffle Basket is ready to go. Items were collected for our club's centerpiece basket featuring Holiday Cookies with a cookbook and items for cookie baking. Several members are taking items for the Silent Auction.

Items for Colfax Wildlife Rehab and Release were collected, along with items for The Colfax Senior Living Center.

Geri will have dues and Pennies for Friendship sent to Vicki, treasurer, along with the annual report by Dec 1, as required.

Popple Creek-Dec.: We had our Christmas Party at Exit 45. Items for Colfax Rehab and Release and the Sr. Living Center were collected. We have decided to continue with these two projects again next year.

Ideal-Oct: Ideal will read for the HeadStart children in October and November. Janine attended the State Conference and told about the sessions she attended. Members were given packets of raffle tickets for the Holiday Tea. The club purchased a packet for each member and several members bought another packet. We discussed programs for next year.

Ideal-Nov.: We met at Sharalyn Schweger's house and enjoyed a lovely lunch. We discussed the All Member Meeting on Oct. 22. Our club was represented by six members. Programs for 2026 were discussed and voted on. We did some planning for the Holiday Tea and have a couple people working on the centerpieces and some doing auction items. We elected officers and paid our dues for the coming year. Some of our members will attend the Library Tour on Nov. 20. We plan to have our annual club Holiday Party in January when we are finished with all the busy holiday season

Holiday Tea December 6

We had another fun, successful Holiday Tea. 36 members and 6 guests attended the event. We enjoyed coffee, punch, cookies, cheese, summer sausage, crackers and veggies. Nadine Schlough played Christmas music on the piano while members enjoyed the refreshments, bid on silent auction items and visited with each other. Margaret Breisch entertained us with an imaginative left-right gift exchange story about the flat tire on the ride home from the WAHCE convention. Nadine Schlough led a sing-a-long accompanied by our 6 member HCE Christmas band. We made over $700 at the event. The profits go towards the scholarship fund.

Sew Blessed

Sew Blessed is a group of ladies who use their love of sewing to help bless our community.

They meet once a month to work on a project. I attended in October, when we made angel ornaments for House of Hope. I did not sew, but helped by gluing the heads on. You do not need to be a sewer in order to participate.

The group meets in the Small Group Room at Cedarbrook Church. The following information comes from Kristen Johnson, who oversees the projects:

Upcoming Projects

- January 8 (6–8 p.m.) or January 9 (9 a.m.–noon) — Come to one or both

Sewing aprons and pot holders (bring 1 yard of fabric if you wish)

- February 12–13 — Pajama bottoms for Foster Care
- March 12–13 — Pocket Prayers for the Prayer Room
- April 9–10 — Pillowcase dresses and skirts for missions
- May 14–15 — Embroidered handkerchiefs for baptisms

No sewing experience is necessary. No sign-up is required—just come and help bless others! We would be sew blessed to have you.
